

2009 EWGA – SEATTLE CHAPTER GHIN APPLICATION

Golf Handicaps

Golf handicaps are provided by the Golf Handicap and Information Network (GHIN) or the United States Golf Association (USGA) through Pacific Northwest Golf Association (PNGA).

What is the EWGA Golf Club?

The Golf Club is a service of the Executive Women's Golf Association, to provide a means for EWGA members to obtain and maintain a GHIN handicap. Your GHIN card will state: HOME CLUB – EWGA GOLF CLUB. It is provided purely on a voluntary basis.

Membership Requirements

The only requirement for membership in the EWGA Golf Club is that you are a current member of the Executive Women's Golf Association, Seattle Chapter.

Processing

Membership applications and renewals usually take 10-14 days to process.

Score Posting

18-hole rounds and 9-hole rounds can be posted.

Handicap Updates

From March 1 through November 15, handicaps are updated biweekly.

Membership Dues

Annual dues are $30.00

Prior Scoring History

If you are a new GHIN member, you need at least six 18-hole scores to establish a handicap.
